A little bit about the job ...

This is an opportunity to serve in camp ministry in a seasonal position and strengthen your culinary skills! You will be reporting to the Food Service Manager, and working alongside a team of other cooks and volunteers including the summer months. From the kitchen, you have an opportunity to show Christ-like hospitality to the property's guest groups and Young Life summer program by providing professional, efficient, timely and well presented food items. As well, you will clean and sterilize ensuring food safe practices are always maintained.

RockRidge Canyon has different operating seasons, some of which require seasonal staff, temporary volunteers, and additional staff from other departments. You will be required to work alongside a variety of people, and on occasion may be asked to ensure proper introduction and training to others. As a Christian with a vibrant and growing faith, you will mentor volunteers and help them on their spiritual journey as they serve in the Food Service Department.
